

30 Days of Prayer with RCA Global Mission

We're glad you're joining us on this 30-day prayer journey.
To sign up to receive this digitally, visit www.rca.org/30days

Day 1: Pray for the children of Malawi, Zambia, and Zimbabwe. Pray that they would have access to adequate and appropriate education, including special education.

Day 2: Pray for a strong network of Christian leaders and pastors dedicated to urban ministry in Bangkok, Thailand.

Day 3: Pray that people come to know God's love through the CEPAD staff and their efforts to reduce rural poverty in Nicaragua.

Day 4: Pray that an interest in Christianity and the church would bloom and be nourished through church planting efforts in eastern Europe. In a post-Christian culture, may people find their way back to God and have a desire to convene together in community.

Day 5: Pray for the youngest generation of the church in Mexico, especially in Oaxaca. May they feel the love of Christ through ministries like Children and Worship.

Day 6: Pray for peace and positive relations between Muslims and Christians in the Middle East, specifically Lebanon.

Day 7: Pray for Christians and churches in remote villages in Alaska.

Day 8: Pray that Christians will be ambassadors of Christ to people who are part of the largest forced displacement in recorded history and who are seeking refuge.

Day 9: Pray for the health of the Maasai people. Pray they will have access to the care they need, including prenatal care, immunizations, counseling, and other healthcare.

Day 10: Pray for an opening of hearts within people in Japan who have not yet accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior.

Day 11: Pray that our partners in Jamaica would find new opportunities to raise awareness of CCCD's resources for children and families of the Deaf population.

Day 12: Pray for the people of Bahrain. May the legacy of the RCA continue to be a blessing through the American Mission Hospital.

Day 13: Pray that the Lord would protect all children who are currently at risk of being sold or are already in the sex trade.

Day 14: Pray for the translation of the Bible. Pray that our partners in Ethiopia would continue to lay the groundwork for both translation and education in native languages so that when the Bible is translated, communities are able to read it.

Day 15: Pray for the new ministry leaders in Cambodia. May they receive the training needed to boldly grow the church in their home country. Pray that they might faithfully follow God's purposes for them in life and ministry

Day 16: Pray for displaced people and migrants who live and work in unsafe conditions; pray for the reforming of labor laws and increased legal pathways to citizenship.

Day 17: Pray for the indigenous leaders enrolled in the missionary training center in Manaus, Brazil. As they return to their villages, pray that Jesus Christ's great name would be spread and known in every village and tribe in the Amazon, Brazil.

Day 18: Pray for single mothers, young mothers, and young families who are in need of assistance and support. May they find the resources they need to raise the children God has entrusted them with.

Day 19: Pray for security in Niger as terrorist activity threatens the country from every side, and the need for proclamation of the gospel becomes more urgent. Pray that God would be a refuge for the most vulnerable in Niger.

Day 20: Pray that our partners would have the resources they need to record and distribute the Bible in audio so all may hear the gospel in their heart language in India. Also pray for the continued spread of the HUM app tool.

Day 21: Pray for the community of Dallas in Romania. We pray for unity and Christ's love to flourish in the city through the climbing gym and new church plant run by Janelle and Felipe deWaard-Silva.

Day 22: Pray for the rural youth of Peru who travel to the city looking for opportunities. Pray for wisdom and protection for them as they struggle with financial needs. Pray that they wouldn't be vulnerable to exploitation.

Day 23: Pray for Bible translation projects in sensitive areas around the world. The translators face extreme challenges and are often isolated.

Day 24: Pray for the thousands of homeless people in Staten Island, New York. Pray they would find places of respite and resources for whatever needs they may have. May the staff of Project Hospitality be a beacon of Christ's light and love for them.

Day 25: Pray for the seminary students in Ethiopia. As the church in Africa rapidly grows, these seminary students are preparing to lead missional ministries among their Muslim neighbors.

Day 26: Pray for the safety of pilots who serve as the only transportation for pastors, necessary supplies, and medical teams to remote villages and isolated people in Indonesia.

Day 27: Pray for the Christian expats living in Hannover, Germany. Pray that they can find a church community where they feel like they can truly belong.

Day 28: Pray for our Native American Ministries churches and their leaders. Pray that God would permeate those communities with God's peace and that the gospel would be a beacon of light that meets our sisters and brothers within their cultural contexts.

Day 29: Pray for the children of Bluefields, Nicaragua. Pray for access to adequate nourishment, healthcare, and the gospel of Christ.

Day 30: Pray for local churches in Nepal to reach unreached people groups and for church planters in Nepal to get resources and prayer support. Pray for church planters reaching Nepali communities in the U.S. as well.