PRAY

- For the Al Amana Centre staff to find ways to translate what they learn in Oman to other contexts.
- For the Al Amana Centre's work with the new Minister of Religious Affairs in Oman.
- For a full reopening of in-person programs post COVID-19.
- For new areas to bring the Al Amana Centre's online work.

About the ministry

In the shadow of Oman's minarets—the towers from which Muslims are called to prayer—a group of Christians and Muslims sit in a circle, sharing food and care-filled conversation. Out of the bright sunlight, they have gathered to learn peacebuilding skills at the Al Amana Centre, one of the ways the Centre is building bridges between the two religions.

Serving as Director of the Al Amana Centre, Justin's ministry is one of peacebuilding and reconciliation. Stephanie assists in this work, serving as Manager of Data, Monitoring, and Evaluation. As part of the Al Amana Centre's legacy of more than 125 years of RCA mission work, Justin and Stephanie are working to create a safe, hospitable space for both Christians and Muslims to share Scripture, fellowship, meals, and friendship. By doing so, they can live in peace within their communities.
