Helping by Sharing

The thrift store, known as the Anville Trade Store, has blessed area families for decades. For years, Justice for All of Rock Valley, IA, has been instrumental in our operations with its donations of semi-loads of used clothing, furniture, and miscellaneous household items. We are grateful to Keith "Doc" Ruter, one of our board members from Lanark, IL, who coordinates trailer loads of furniture and other items for the trade store from churches and individuals in the northern Illinois area. We also receive several boxes via the post office from individuals and donations from residents. To all who donate items, help unload trailers, and volunteer to help sort and display items, we say thank you.

Join us in giving thanks for the many years that the trade store has been able to provide blessings to our local community. We also would appreciate your prayers that the trade store will continue to be a place where the love of Christ is shared through our actions and words.

Sincerely,
Jake Moss and Tommy Miracle

We are blessed by volunteers who help our dedicated staff by unloading trailers and sorting items for our thrift store. Our community says thanks to all who contribute to the trade store.
