Ministry News

The CdM dorms are FULL with 26 students participating in Casa del Maestro discipleship program. Eleven students arrived in the first week of March to join the 2025 Academy class. They are settling in, and everyone is getting to know each other and learn how to live, work, and study alongside one another.

Though a great number of hours is dedicated to academic pursuits, our greatest mission and vision is to see the students walking with the Lord in their daily lives. We want to see students rise out of poverty and flourish in their new lives in the city. We know and preach that the best path to this success is following God's Word.

Meet...

More to come about our Academy (first year) students, but here are some brief introductions of whom we are working with. One young lady does not come from a Christian home and is hearing the good news on a regular basis. All students should start eating much better with a culinary student in their ranks. Another young man comes from such a remote village that he walked two days to get to the highway and took three buses. Can you imagine what a city of 600,000 must feel like? Next, we have an aspiring professional footballer/soccer player in our midst. Lastly, two young ladies are joining the crew from the village of Huancahuanca; CdM has received several students from this area. If only they really did have a chocolate factory....

Family News

After a very cold, fun, and productive home assignment, we thank God for a quiet life in Cusco. Albino is invested in teaching and spending time with the students. Sandy and the kids focus on homeschool and their extracurricular activities.

Prayer and Praise Requests

*Pray for the health of students and their family members. A number are facing chronic conditions and some, surgery. Also, living in close quarters means colds pass around quite easily.

*Praise God for teams and volunteers coming this first half of the year. We are blessed by their service. Pray for safety in their travel and time in Cusco.

Blessings,

Albino and Sandy Rodriguez
