RCA Global Mission

Update from

ALBINO AND SANDY RODRIGUEZ

August 2026

Dear friends,

Ministry News

Casa del Maestro finished another successful Academy this year. We started with eleven students; due to various reasons, three decided to walk other paths. The remaining eight are currently looking for employment and a few started classes. Before we sent out our students after an intensive six-month discipleship program, we hosted two teams from the U.S. The focus of both was worldview and relationship building. Each group provided opportunities for CdM students to "travel" without leaving the city.

First, the RCA sent a young adult team with the added bonus of the Coordinator for Global Engagement for Young Adults joining. The team joined a university campus ministry meeting, visited a CdM family in a rural village, hiked some ruins, and much more. Second, Third Reformed of Holland blessed us with a group of high school girls. Language lessons and traditional food and dances were interchanged with courage and laughter. Together they explored Cusco, both the city and the archaeological ruins.

Would you like to receive these updates digitally? Please email Kelli at kgilmore@rca.org to be added to the email list. You will receive more timely updates from the missionary you support and help us be good stewards of our resources.

Meet…

Bleny, a young lady that has participated in CdM since 2025. She currently studies tourism. The Third Reformed team invited CdM students to tour Cusco ruins with them. Bleny served as our guide. She diligently studied for the specific sites we visited and led nearly 30 people. This is what CdM is about, discipling students and giving them the opportunities to lead and grow.

Family News

One of the blessings of homeschool is its flexibility. In the last couple months, our kids hosted the two teams alongside us, giving them real world experience. We enjoyed spending time together as a family and with our visitors. After, U.S. grandparents and family spoiled Toby with some one-on-one time in Michigan. Now it's time for all to return to the books and finish the academic learning.

As always, we thank you for your prayers and encouragement while we continue to serve in Cusco, Peru. You are our partners. You can see more about our sending church www.rca.org, and the ministry website is www.casadelmaestro.org.

Blessings,
Albino and Sandy Rodríguez
